

Vocabulary List #2– Quiz on 5/12 OR 5/13

1. Peninsula (n): A piece of land that is almost entirely surrounded by water but is connected to a larger mainland on one side. Florida is a famous peninsula in the United States because it is surrounded by the ocean on three sides.
2. Phenomenon (n): A remarkable event or situation that can be observed, especially one whose cause is interesting or unusual. The Northern Lights are a natural phenomenon that people travel from all over the world to see.
3. Philosophy (n): The study of basic ideas about knowledge, right and wrong, reasoning, and the value of things. Ancient Greek philosophy taught people to ask deep questions about how to live a good life.
4. Patricians (n): Members of the land-holding upper class in Ancient Rome who had the most power and wealth. In the early Roman Republic, only the patricians were allowed to serve as government leaders.
5. Plebeians (n): The common people in Ancient Rome, such as farmers, merchants, and craftworkers, who made up the majority of the population. The plebeians eventually went on strike to demand more rights and a voice in the Roman government.
6. Prosper (v): To be successful, healthy, or strong; usually related to making a lot of money or growing well. With hard work and plenty of rain, the farmer's crops began to prosper and grow tall.
7. Innovation (n): A new idea, method, or invention that improves the way things are done. The invention of the smartphone was a major innovation that changed how we communicate.
8. Corruption (n): Dishonest or illegal behavior by people in power, such as taking bribes or cheating. The city's government struggled with corruption after the mayor was caught using tax money for himself.
9. Nomadic (adj): Describing a way of life where people move from place to place instead of living in one permanent home. Many ancient tribes followed a nomadic lifestyle, moving their tents whenever their animals needed new grass to eat.
10. Export (v): To send goods or services to another country for sale. Brazil is able to export huge amounts of coffee to other countries every year.